Dear Participant:

We are pleased to present this revised booklet about the IATSE National Vacation Fund’s Vacation Plan. This booklet contains the rules and regulations of the Plan, and provides important updated information about your vacation benefits, including:

- when you can participate in the Plan
- how your vacation benefits are determined
- when your vacation account is paid, and
- other Plan features.

We encourage you to read this booklet carefully. To help you understand the defined terms used in this booklet, they are italicized throughout, featured in the “Terms You Should Know” at the start of each section and included in the glossary on page 14. Since the Vacation Plan may make a payment to your designated beneficiary in the event of your death, be sure to share this booklet with whomever you designate as your beneficiary.

After reading this booklet, if you have questions about the Plan or would like more information, contact the Fund Office. A staff member will be pleased to assist you with any questions or concerns you may have.

IV GLOSSARY
Introduction

The IATSE National Vacation Fund (referred to in this booklet as the “Fund”) was set up to provide vacation benefits to eligible participants. It was established on October 25, 1973, as the result of various collective bargaining agreements with the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists, and Allied Crafts of the United States and Canada (the Union). These collective bargaining agreements are contracts between employers and the Union which, among other things, require an employer to contribute to the Vacation Fund on behalf of employees who are covered by the IATSE National Vacation Plan (referred to in this booklet as the Plan).

The Plan is completely funded through the IATSE National Vacation Fund; you are neither required nor permitted to make contributions to the Plan.

Since 1973 when the rules and regulations of the Plan were approved, the Plan has been amended and modified. Additional amendments are likely as circumstances change. The latest revisions to the Plan were made in January 2006.

We’ve tried to explain things in everyday language, but you will come across some words and phrases that have specific meanings within the context of the Plan. To help you understand them, they are italicized in the booklet, featured in the “Terms You Should Know” box at the start of each section and included in the glossary on page 14.

The Plan is completely funded through the IATSE National Vacation Fund; you are neither required nor permitted to make contributions to the Plan. It is administered by a Board of Trustees consisting of representatives appointed by the Union and the contributing employers. The Board of Trustees acts on behalf of you and your fellow Plan participants to manage all aspects of the Fund’s operations.

Eligibility and Participation

Terms You Should Know...

• Contributing employer is an employer that has signed a collective bargaining agreement with the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists, and Allied Crafts of the United States and Canada (the Union) or any local union chartered by or affiliated with the Union (an affiliated local).

• Covered employment is work for which a contributing employer is required to contribute to the Vacation Fund on your behalf.

• Employee means someone who works for an employer that contributes to the Vacation Fund as required by a collective bargaining agreement.

Who’s Eligible

If you work for an employer that contributes to the Vacation Fund on your behalf, you are eligible to participate in the Plan. If you (or your beneficiary) want to know whether a particular employer contributes to the Vacation Fund, contact the Fund Office.

When Participation Starts

You are enrolled automatically in the Plan as soon as you are eligible to participate.

Naming a Beneficiary

When you become eligible to participate in the Plan, you will need to name a beneficiary. You may name anyone you want as your beneficiary, and you may change your beneficiary designation at any time.

If you want to make or change your beneficiary designation, please notify the Fund Office immediately. A change of beneficiary takes effect only when you complete a beneficiary designation form and return it by mail to the Fund Office. You can obtain a form online at www.iatsenbf.org, or by contacting the Fund Office at 212-580-9092 in New York or 1-800-456-FUND (3863) outside of New York.
If you have no beneficiary on file. If you die without having designated a beneficiary (or if your designated beneficiary dies before you or before receiving the full or remaining amount in your vacation account), any money remaining in your vacation account will be distributed to the following individuals, in the order listed:

- a spouse to whom you are married at the time of your death
- your children (naturally or legally adopted), divided equally among them
- your parents, divided equally between them if both survive you
- your executor or administrator.

Keep the Fund Office Informed

In order to ensure fast and accurate distribution of your vacation checks, it is important that the Fund Office have the most up-to-date information on file for you. In particular, you or your beneficiary must notify the Fund Office directly whenever you and/or your spouse:

- change your name
- change your postal address
- change your email address
- change your telephone number
- change your marital status (marriage, legal separation or divorce)
- die.
Vacation Accounts

Terms You Should Know...

- Contributions are the payments made by employers to the Fund pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement with the Union.

- Vacation account is the account established for you by the Plan from which vacation benefits are paid to you.

The contributions your employer makes to the Fund on your behalf are credited to your vacation account. This account is established for you once you are eligible and enrolled automatically in the Plan. The money in your vacation account is invested in accordance with a low-risk investment strategy and used to pay vacation benefits to you each year. See page 6 for details on how and when vacation benefits are paid.

How the Amount of Your Vacation Check Is Determined

As of each December 31, the amount of money in your vacation account is determined as follows:

| VALUE OF YOUR ACCOUNT | = | Any unforfeited contributions remaining in your account from prior years | PLUS | Contributions made on your behalf for the current year that have been received and processed by the date your account value is determined | PLUS OR MINUS | Investment results and Fund administrative expenses |

Contributions made by an employer to the Vacation Fund on your behalf are credited to your vacation account, which is established for you by the Plan and from which your vacation benefits are paid.
When Benefits Are Paid

Vacation checks are issued in May of each year. Each check includes all employer contributions for work performed in the previous calendar year (January 1 through December 31) that are received and processed by the date of the check run, plus or minus interest income and administrative expenses. You do not have to apply for your vacation check.

If the Fund Office receives late contributions on your behalf, you may be issued a supplemental check, or the amount may be added to the vacation check you receive in May of the following year.

Example. You are issued a $500 vacation check in May 2009 for contributions (and related earnings minus administrative expenses) received by the Fund Office for work you performed in 2008. In June, the Fund Office receives an additional contribution for work you performed in 2008. Depending on the amount of the contribution, the Fund Office may, at its discretion, send you an additional check or add the amount to the check you will receive in May 2010 for work performed in 2009.

How Benefits Are Paid

You have two choices for receiving your vacation benefits—direct deposit into a checking or savings account or an actual check mailed to your home address. To elect direct deposit, you must complete an application (available from the Fund Office or our Web site).

If you don’t elect direct deposit, your vacation checks will arrive by mail. Since vacation checks are mailed to your last known address, be sure to inform the Fund Office of any changes to your address or other contact information. Be sure to cash your check as soon as possible after you receive it. If you wait more than 180 days (six months), it will no longer be valid and you’ll have to contact the Fund Office for a replacement. If you wait more than 24 months, the check will be voided automatically and you’ll forfeit the full amount. If we have no known or valid mailing address for you on file, any amount in your account will be forfeited in 24 months.

If you die and your designated beneficiary (or other applicable individuals, as listed on page 4) cannot be located within 24 months following your death, the full amount in your vacation account will be forfeited.

No taxes are deducted from your vacation account when checks are distributed. Employers are required to make the necessary payroll tax deductions and withholdings before they contribute to the Fund.
Other Information You Should Know

This section contains other important information you should know about the IATSE National Vacation Fund.

You do not need to file a claim for benefits; vacation checks are issued automatically. However, if you believe that you did not receive a vacation check to which you were entitled, you may file a claim for benefits with the Fund. You must file this claim by September 1 of the year following the year in which you accrued your benefit.

Appealing a Denied Claim

If your application for a benefit is denied, in whole or in part, you will receive written notice of that decision from the Board of Trustees within 90 days after receipt of your claim for benefits. If, due to special circumstances beyond the control of the Fund, more time is needed to process a claim, the claimant will receive a written notice, before the initial 90-day period expires, that the 90-day period has been extended for up to an additional 90 days, along with an estimate of the date on which a final decision is expected.

The notice will explain all of the following:

- the specific reasons for the denial
- reference to the exact Plan provision(s) on which the decision is based
- what additional material or information is needed to process your application, and what procedure you should follow to get your application reviewed again, and
- a description of the Fund's review procedures and the applicable time limits, as well as a statement of your right to bring a civil action under ERISA following an adverse benefit determination on review.

If the Trustees deny your application, you have the right to apply for a review by the Board of Trustees. You must do this in writing within 60 days after you receive the application denial notice. Your request should state clearly the reasons for your appeal and should include any additional documents, records or other evidence that you believe should be considered in connection with your appeal. If you request it, you will be provided access to or copies of all documents, records or other information relevant to your appeal.

If your application is denied, you can apply for a review of your application. You have 60 days to appeal from the date you receive notice that your application has been denied.
The Trustees will make a full and fair review as soon as possible after your request is submitted. The decision following the review will be made by the Trustees at their next regularly scheduled meeting, unless your request is filed less than 30 days prior to the next meeting. If this is the case, the decision will be made at the next regularly scheduled Trustee meeting. If, due to special circumstances beyond the control of the Fund, more time is needed to process a claim, the decision may be made at the third meeting following receipt of such request and the claimant will receive a written notice in advance of any such extension. You will be notified in writing of the determination on review within 5 days after the determination is made. If an adverse benefit determination is made on review, the notice will explain the following:

- the specific reasons for the denial
- reference to the specific Plan provision(s) on which the decision is based
- a statement that the claimant is entitled to receive, upon request and free or charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records, and other information relevant to the claimant’s claim for benefits, and
- a statement describing the claimant’s rights to obtain additional information regarding the Plan’s appeals process, including a statement of the claimant’s right to bring a civil action under section 502(a) of ERISA.

The decision of the Trustees on review shall be final and binding on all parties. Please note that you may not pursue any action in court until you have exhausted this claims procedure.

Assignment of Benefits

Benefits under the Plan are for your benefit only. They cannot be sold, transferred, assigned or pledged to anyone; nor are benefits subject in any manner to anticipation, alienation, encumbrance or charge. No benefits payable from the Fund are available for payment of any debts you or your beneficiary entitled to benefits under the Plan may have; nor are benefits subject to attachment, execution or process in any court action or proceeding.

Incapacitation

If anyone is entitled to receive benefits from the Plan, and is judged by the Trustees to be physically or mentally incapable of handling personal affairs, the Trustees may pay the benefit to a legal representative or other person, as the Trustees deem in the best interest of the beneficiary.

Compliance with Federal Law

The Plan is governed by regulations and rulings of the Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Labor, and current federal tax law. The Plan will always be construed to comply with these regulations, rulings and laws. Generally, federal law takes precedence over state law.
Plan Change or Termination
The Trustees intend to continue the benefits described in this book indefinitely. However, the Trustees reserve the right, in their sole and absolute discretion, to terminate the Plan in whole or in part at any time; to modify or amend the Plan in whole or in part; and to change or discontinue the type and amounts of benefits offered by the Fund. If the Plan is ended, you will be fully vested in any benefit you have accrued to the extent then funded. Plan assets will be applied to provide benefits in accordance with the applicable provisions of federal law.

Recovery of Overpayment
If you or your beneficiary (including a surviving spouse) are overpaid or otherwise paid in error, you must return the overpayment. The Board of Trustees will have the right to recover any benefit payments made that were based on false or fraudulent statements, information or proof submitted, as well as any benefit payments made in error. Amounts recovered may include interest and costs.

In the event you are overpaid, the Fund Office will request a refund. If the refund is not received, a lawsuit may be initiated to recover the overpayment. If the overpayment resulted from any materially false statement or information, such overpayment will be deducted from future payments.

Fund Administration
The Vacation Plan is known as a “vacation benefit plan.” Benefits are provided, in the amounts specified in the Plan rules and regulations, from the Fund’s assets. These assets are accumulated under the provisions of the Trust Agreement and are held in a Trust Fund for the purpose of providing benefits to participants and defraying reasonable administrative expenses. The Fund is administered by the Board of Trustees.

Collective Bargaining Agreements/Contributing Employers
The Plan is financed by contributions paid to the Fund by employers as required under the various collective bargaining agreements (CBAs) negotiated with the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists, and Allied Crafts of the United States and Canada. You are not required or permitted to contribute to the Plan.
Copies of applicable collective bargaining agreements may be obtained upon written request to the Fund Office, and they are available for examination during normal business hours at the Fund Office. In addition, a complete list of bargaining units participating in the Fund may be obtained upon written request to the Fund Office and is available for examination by covered persons and beneficiaries during normal business hours at the Fund Office. The Fund Office may charge a reasonable amount for copies.

Participants and their beneficiaries may also receive from the Fund Office, upon written request, information as to whether a particular employer or employee organization is participating in the Fund and, if the employer or employee organization is participating, its address.

Plan Interpretation

The Board of Trustees and/or its duly authorized designee(s) has the exclusive right, power, and authority, in its sole and absolute discretion, to administer, apply and interpret the Plan, including this book, the Trust Agreement and any other Plan documents, and to decide all matters arising in connection with the operation or administration of the Fund or Trust. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Board of Trustees and/or its duly authorized designee(s) shall have the sole and absolute discretionary authority to do any of the following:

- take all actions and make all decisions with respect to the eligibility for, and the amount of, benefits payable under the Plan
- formulate, interpret and apply rules, regulations and policies necessary to administer the Plan in accordance with the terms of the Plan
- decide questions, including legal or factual questions, relating to the calculation and payment of benefits under the Plan
- resolve and/or clarify any ambiguities, inconsistencies and omissions arising under the Plan, including this book, the Trust Agreement or other Plan documents
- process and approve or deny benefit claims
- determine the standard of proof required in any case.

All determinations and interpretations made by the Board of Trustees and/or its duly authorized designee(s) are final and binding upon all participants, beneficiaries and any other individuals claiming benefits under the Plan. The Board of Trustees may delegate any other such duties or powers as it deems necessary to carry out the administration of the Plan.
Your Rights Under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA)

As a participant in the IATSE National Vacation Fund, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all Plan participants shall be entitled to the following.

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits

- Examine, without charge, at the Fund Office and at other specified locations, such as work locations and union halls, all documents governing the Plan, including insurance contracts, collective bargaining agreements, detailed annual reports, an updated summary plan description and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 series) filed by the Plan with the Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

- Obtain copies of all Plan documents and other Plan information upon written request to the Fund Administrator. The Fund Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

- Receive a summary of the Plan’s annual financial report. The Fund Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

The Plan document is available from:

Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the Plan. The people who operate your Plan, called “fiduciaries” of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining benefits or exercising your rights under ERISA.
Enforcing Your Rights

If your claim for a benefit is denied in whole or in part, you have the right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision, without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules. You have the right to have the Plan review and reconsider your claim.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request materials from the Plan, such as Plan documents and annual reports, and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Fund Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Administrator.

If you have a claim for benefits that is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the Plan’s decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a domestic relations order, you may file suit in a federal court. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan’s money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees; for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Your Questions

If you have any questions about your Vacation Fund benefits, you should contact the Fund Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, you should call the nearest Office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, at the number listed in your telephone directory. You may also write to them at:

Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries
Employee Benefits Security Administration
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20210

You can also get certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration at 1-800-998-7542.

You may also find answers to your Plan questions at the website of the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) at www.dol.gov/ebsa. A list of EBSA Field Offices is located at www.dol.gov/ebsa.
